Social Distancing Index in Kansas, by County
April 24, 2020

Social Distancing Index is an integer from 0-100 that represents the extent residents and visitors are practicing social distancing. “0” indicates no social distancing is observed in the community, while “100” indicates all residents are staying at home and no visitors are entering the county.