How does the census impact K-12 education funding?

46.4% of public school children in Kansas are enrolled in the free or reduced price lunch program (2017 - 2018).

Kansas received over $137 million for school breakfast and lunch programs in FY2016.

Source: GW University, Counting for Dollars. National School Lunch Program $106,497,000, National School Breakfast Program $31,271,000

Title 1 is the largest federal aid program for public schools. Local educational agencies in Kansas received $109 million in Title 1 grants in FY2016.

Source: GW University, Counting for Dollars. Title 1 Grants to LEA’s: $109,134,862.